Lynda,
To a really great friend. Remember see and period gym class, and Pool Class, and all the long talks we had. Remember all the fun we had, when our team was winning all the games. Remember when we played Patty-cake during the Volleyball and Baseball games.
Ha! Good luck in your last year at M.E.N.S. I hope you in my gym and Pool
classes next year, too.
Have fun this summer, and maybe see ya sometime uptown, okay?

Synda,

Have fun this summer
and thanks for letting me have five to ten minutes to get back to Ledy Hall. See you next year when we ~~are~~ are on top. Keep smilin and the world will smile with you and all that junk.

Student Life
1970

Mr. Fred Maroglio

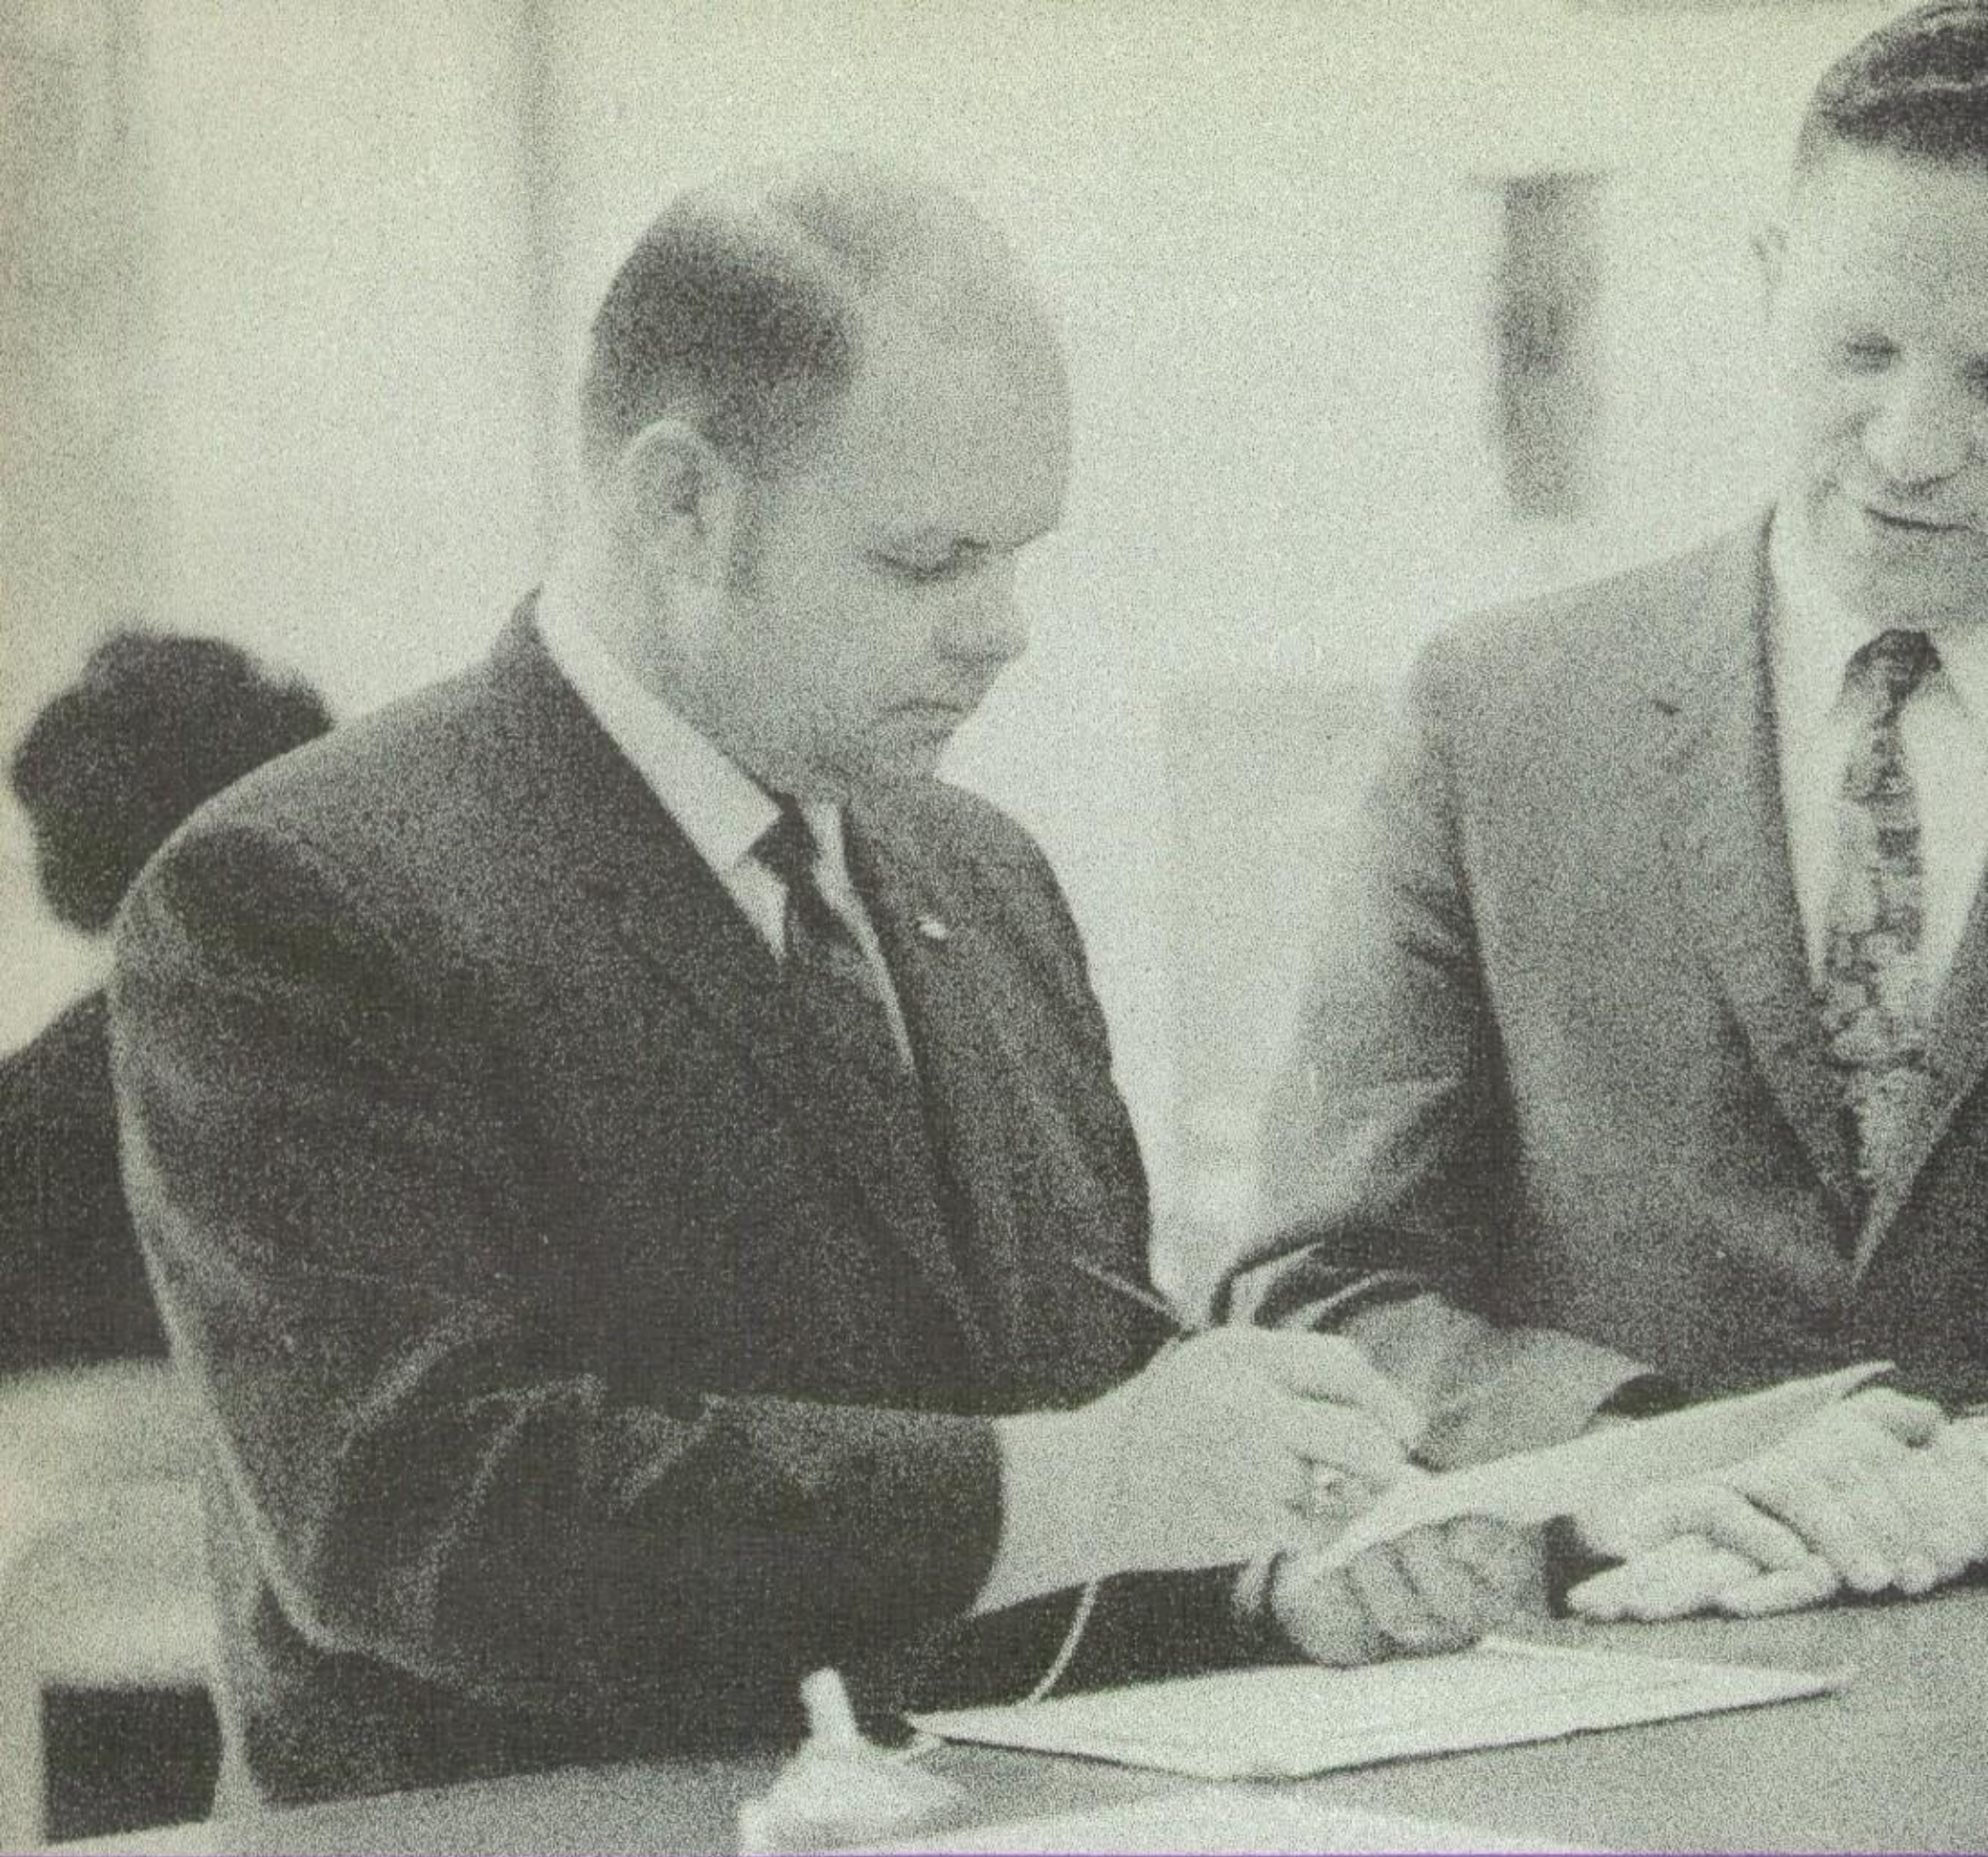

We the class of 1970 dedicate our yearbook to you.

We are grateful to you for making the past come alive in American History and the present have meaning in P.O.D. Your classes are conducted with a refreshing humor, and we are forever being called on when it is least expected. All of us will long remember you as the former coach of J.V. basketball wearing your red socks, carnation and tie, and your golden voice telling us that the North East gridders had made another magnificent play.

So, to both a teacher and a friend, we dedicate the 1970 Aquilo to you.

Lynda,
Altho' I never knew you very well
I still have seen your nice, friendly smile and known your sweet disposition.
Always remember the fun (?) in shows. Good luck in life. Take care and have fun!

Love,
Lynda

George A. Maines

West Virginia University, B.S., M.A.

Acting as Superintendent of North East School District, Mr. Maines is responsible for the total curriculum development. He supervises the budget, acts as director of school personnel, and coordinates the operation of the North East Schools. In his daily duties Mr. Maines exemplifies Carlyle's words, "Every noble work is at first impossible." His perseverance is appreciated by students and teachers.

Donald G. Claypool

Indiana State University, B.S.
University of Pittsburgh, M. Ed.

Mr. Claypool, as Principal, is the instructional leader of North East High School. He supervises the curriculum, pupil services, and high school expenditures. He serves as the liason between the School Board and the Faculty. Among his other activities Mr. Claypool acts as co-advisor to the Senior Class. The smooth flow of activities at North East High School is proof of his skill as principal.

Senior Honors

Each senior class anticipates with a degree of excitement the announcement of its highest scholastically ranking members. The largest class to graduate from North East High School is justifiably proud that John Pero and Ann Muscarella have achieved first and second honors respectively by performing at a superior level of academic excellence. At commencement on June 5, 1970, John will deliver the Valedictory address while Ann will give the Salutatorian's farewell for the class of 1970.

Lynnda,

What can I say
to a crumb? Oh, well!
It's been really nice having you as a friend because you
take my books to the Library. Good Luck
always to a real good

Linda,
of my writings, yet you know why.
your driving. Since you are one of my best friends & don't know what to write.
Good luck always & be as true as you are now. I'll always remember you (but this shouldn't be a senior). Good luck always & I'll see you this summer a lot. (maybe).

Suv.
May you
P.S. always remember our driving as if you could forget! Very good!

Linda,

Good luck in the future
Have a real ball this

To my best Charus, English and Algebra buddy! Remember all our rendezvous in the library before homeroom. Then in Charus that was a blast. Next year will have a riot trying to out sing each other. We both ought to try out for district. In English, now that's a different story. You with the better poetry than me! At lunch, in our fight were really something, usually about nothing. Then Algebra that was really the worst. You caused me problems, you and Mary Ann Daily. If I had to go through another year with you two I think I would crack. Then there was the prom. We did have fun didn't we, trying to avoid Mary Ann. You're the best teapot maker, I know. Will have to get to the pizza shop more often want me. It was fun. Don't forget to come down this summer, and pick out a few cats for all your nephews etc. No telling how many you'll have by the end of the summer. Don't forget all the parties we've had at Beth's and everywhere. You always wanted to go to sleep when we didn't and didn't when we did. You always were weird. It's probably the influence Harry has on you. Don't forget Rodney + Paul and all the ones I don't know about yet. I'll find out about all of them, you can't keep secrets from me. Remember you're coming down to my house and Beth's and we'll all go swimming in their pool or our creek. That will be fun! Pretty soon you'll be seventeen and you'll be feeling the effects of old age. I'll see ya next year but this summer too.

Are you going to work this summer. You should work with me.

Love
Elaine

see that this page is blank so I
in the first to meet it
wish good luck and happiness
to a wonderful girl and a great teacher
maker. don't forget the fun we had in Algebr.
in the prom and the fun(?) we had in Algebr.
have a great summer, and take care. See you next year as seniors. Paul "71"
